POINTS TO REMEMBER

PLEASE READ THE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY!

Activity 1

- Choose the two A1 level questions from two different categories of questions.
- If the candidate fails to respond to the first A1 level question, quickly move on to the second A1 level question. If the candidate is shy, confused, etc., help him/her out (repeat the question, say it slower, show support, etc.).
- If the candidate fails to respond to the two A1 level questions, continue with the A2 level questions.
- Choose the two A2 level questions from two different categories of questions.
- If the candidate fails to respond to the first A2 level question, quickly move on to the second A2 level question. If the candidate fails to respond to the A2 level questions, do not insist by giving prompts, helping out, etc, but move on to the second activity.

Activity 2

- Show the candidate which photo page he or she should be looking at for his/her questions. (Do not let the candidate find the page by him/herself).
- Use a different photo page for each candidate.
- Do not choose A1 level or A2 level questions at random. Ask two A1 level questions and two A2 level questions that are for the same task.
- If the candidate is embarrassed or reluctant to answer any of the questions, help him/her out by repeating the task (start with a cue, give an example, etc.).

Activity 3

Pay extra attention to the points below.

- Show the candidate which photo page he or she should be looking at for his/her questions. (Do not let the candidate find the page by him/herself).
- Do not choose A1 level questions at random. Ask two A1 questions that belong to the same task.
- If the candidate fails to respond to the A1 level questions, continue with the A2 level part of the activity.
- For the A2 level part of activity 3, point to the text and the questions the candidate is expected to ask you questions on. Do not simply give the number of the multimodal text.
- Ask each candidate to form a different set of A2 level questions.
- Provide answers to all questions the candidate asks you in a natural way. The answers to the questions are provided in the examiner pack.

POTENTIAL TROUBLE SPOTS DURING THE ORAL EXAM

Remember that at this level candidates' language output is characterised by frequent instances of hesitations, extended pauses, false starts, lexical searching and planning. Therefore, special attention is required on the part of the examiner to phrase instructions slowly and clearly and to allow the candidate time to formulate his/her response.

PROBLEM	SOLUTION
What do I do...	Do what's listed below (in order of priority).
...if the candidate is very hesitant, pauses for too long?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Repeat the candidate's last phrase with rising intonation. 2. Ask a few prompting questions (Is there anything else you would like to add...?). 3. Repeat the task instructions more slowly.
....if the candidate is very nervous/ tense and has difficulty in speaking?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Smile, use body language, facial expressions and intonation to make the candidate feel more comfortable. 2. Make candidates feel at ease by telling them not to worry about their mistakes or words they cannot remember. 3. Try breaking down the question into more simple questions without paraphrasing or altering the original question. 4. If you asked the tense candidate to begin first, switch to the other candidate and then come back to the tense candidate.
...if the candidate draws a blank and seems unable to answer (for activities 2 and 3)?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Repeat the question/ task more slowly. 2. If no response is forthcoming, move on to the next question/ task.
...in activity 3, A2 level, the candidate uses the question prompts but asks an irrelevant or incomprehensible question?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Do not show displeasure, disappointment etc. Repeat the correct question and provide the answer.
... in activity 3, A2 level, the candidate does not use all of the given question prompts but asks a question with a similar meaning to the one expected? *	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Do not show surprise. If the question is semantically appropriate, we consider it as a correct response. Continue by providing the answer.

NOTE:

- Any extra help or guidance (as described above) given to a candidate should be taken into account in the assignment of the final mark.
- Remember that you are there to assess candidates and not to help them or teach them. It is very easy to slip into the teacher's role and supply the candidate with a word s/he is searching for or to complete the candidate's phrase in order to keep the candidate going.
- Care has been taken to phrase task instructions using simple lexis and sentence structure. Do not change or add more information to task instructions.
- If a candidate does not understand a word in the task instructions, you may give a synonym if you are asked to.

* Accept variability of response as long as it is communicatively effective. For example, if the prompt in the yellow box contains the words: how much/ticket/cost, the expected question is 'How much does the ticket cost?' However, if the candidate produces the question "how much is the ticket?" this question is of equal communicative value to the original expected question and is therefore considered correct.

A LEVEL ORAL ASSESSMENT CRITERIA & RATING SCALE

TASK COMPLETION
	1 Unsatisfactory	3 Moderately satisfactory	5 Fully satisfactory
ACTIVITY 1 Interview	Barely responds to the questions, gives wrong or irrelevant answers or no answer at all. Responds to all questions in a fully satisfactory manner, including the most important content points in his/her answers.
ACTIVITY 2 Talk about photos	Has difficulty in responding even to the A1 questions of the task, gives wrong or irrelevant answers or no answer at all. Ineffective or no use of visual prompts.	Responds to the A1 questions of the task effectively, using the visual prompts and including most content points, but has difficulty with or may not respond to the A2 questions of the task.	Responds to both the A1 and A2 questions of the task in a fully satisfactory manner, using the visual prompts effectively and including all content points.
ACTIVITY 3 Give/Ask for info	Has difficulty in responding even to the A1 part of the task, gives wrong or irrelevant answers or no answer at all. Ineffective or no use of multimodal text.	Responds to the A1 part of the task effectively, using the multimodal texts and including most content points, but has difficulty with or may not respond to the A2 part of the task.	Responds to both the A1 and A2 parts of the task in a fully satisfactory manner, using the multimodal texts effectively and including all content points.
QUALITY OF PRODUCTION
	1 Unsatisfactory	3 Moderately satisfactory	5 Fully satisfactory
Pronunciation and intonation	Articulation is unclear. L1 interference in pronunciation and stress is distracting and the output is often unintelligible.	Articulation is generally clear but with quite a few mispronunciations. L1 interference in stress and intonation is very evident. Limited control of phonological features.	Articulation is clear, but a few mispronunciations may occur. L1 accent is noticeable but generally the output is intelligible.
Lexical range - appropriacy of linguistic choices	Uses a few scattered words, makes inappropriate word choices or there is no response.	Uses a very basic and limited repertoire of mostly memorised words and simple phrases that are generally morphologically correct but not always appropriately used. The message gets across though not always very clearly.	Uses a basic repertoire of mostly memorised words and phrases reasonably accurately and appropriately. The message gets across clearly.
Grammatical accuracy	Makes constant errors of grammar and syntax which obscure communication or there is no response.	Uses a limited range of simple grammatical structures and sentence patterns in a memorised repertoire, but not always correctly. Basic errors are common and are rarely self-corrected, but the message gets across without much difficulty in most cases.	Uses some simple structures and a repertoire of frequently used routines and patterns correctly but makes surface mistakes which are occasionally self-corrected. Nevertheless, the message gets across clearly.
Fluency	No fluency; communication is impeded by exceptionally long pauses to search for words, or there is no response.	Manages very short, isolated, mainly pre-packaged utterances, with much pausing to search for expressions and words. Hesitations and quite long pauses are systematically present, which may tire the listener and affect fluency.	Makes him/herself understood in very short utterances, even though pauses, false starts and reformulation are very evident, but do not tire the listener. Maintains a simple flow of speech without too much effort.
Communication strategies	Does not maintain communication and cannot overcome difficulties even after clarifications have been given.	Has difficulty in overcoming gaps in communication or facilitating the flow of conversation through the use of appropriate communication strategies. Generally, manages to communicate with excessive body language or after clarifications have been given.	Uses simple strategies (synonyms, paraphrase, body language) to facilitate the flow of conversation and overcome knowledge gaps. Occasionally requires additional prompting and support.
Cohesion and coherence	Does not organise his/her utterances in a logical way, produces incoherent speech or there is no response.	Organises information in a more or less logical way, occasionally linking words with very basic linear connectors (e.g., and , then). Hesitations and false starts are systematically present and occasionally disrupt coherence.	Organises information clearly and uses simple cohesive devices (e.g., and , but , because). Hesitations and reformulations are common and do not disrupt coherence.
1= Unsatisfactory (FOR A1)	2= Partly unsatisfactory FOR A1	3= Moderately satisfactory (FOR A1)	4= Satisfactory (FOR A2)	5= Fully satisfactory (FOR A2)
